Macon, "The Heart of Georgia," occupies a group of hills overlooking the Ocmulgee River. It was the birthplace of the famed Southern poet, Sidney Lanier. Wide streets, more than 500 acres of public parks with ample trees and colonial architecture, make Macon a typical city of the deep South.

SERVICE NEWS CO., MACON, GA.

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C.T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.)

PLACE
ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE

3B-H1266

POST CARD

4—Cherry Street Looking East,
showing the Bankers Insurance Building in Right Foreground, Macon, Ga.